Genoa, Auguſt 1. N. S. We have received Advice by Veſſels which have arrived here in ſix Days from Barcelona, that the Germans and Portugueze were encamped near Cervera; but that it was expected they would ſoon March towards Lerida, in order to paſs the Segra at that Place. The Allies have tranſported ſuch abundance of Corn to Catalonia, that his Catholick Majeſty hath ordered great quantities to be laid up in his Magazines. Admiral Sommerdyck, with a Squadron of fourteen Dutch Men of War which lay before Thoulon, is every moment expected at Barcelona. The French have lately ſent ſeveral Merchant Ships, with a ſtrong Convoy, to import Corn from Barbary. An Embargo hath lately been laid upon ſeveral Ships laden with Corn, and bound for Provence from Porto-Farina in Africa.

Venice, Auguſt 9. N. S. The Procurator Signior Sebaſtian Foſcarini is appointed Plenipotentiary of this Republick, and ordered to begin his Journey for the Hague within the ſpace of one Month. This Miniſter hath formerly been Ambaſſador at the Courts of Spain and France. The laſt Letters from Rome ſay, that the Pope has recovered his Health. Monſieur Albani was preparing to receive Holy Orders, and is to be inveſted with the Dignity of a Biſhop before he ſets out for Vienna. He deſigns to begin his Journey towards that Place on the 15th Inſtant. All Differences between this State and the Court of Rome are wholly accommodated.

Berne, Auguſt 17. N. S. The laſt Letters from Geneva ſay, that his Royal Highneſs's Army continued at Conflans, and that of France at Montmellian. It was believed, that as ſoon as the Cavalry ſhould have joined Count Thaun, he would forthwith advance towards the Enemy's Camp. We have no certain Accounts of the Motions of the French Troops that are returning from Spain. Our laſt Advices ſay, that twenty five French Battallions are to remain there, under the Command of one French Lieutenant-General, two Majors-General, and ſix Brigadiers; but that they are immediately to enter into the Service and Pay of the Duke of Anjou. We are adviſed from Madrid, that there are great Animoſities between the Grandees of that Kingdom. The particular Cauſes of theſe Diſtractions are not known, but ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction have been lately apprehended on this occaſion.

Berlin, Auguſt 17. N. S. Thurſday laſt being the Prince Royal's Birth-day, the King, Queen, and the whole Court came to Town from Charlottemburg, and were entertained by the Princeſs-Royal. Their Majeſties went after Dinner to Landsberg, and will not return from thence to Charlottemburg 'till Tueſday next. The Princeſs-Royal deſigns ſhortly to go to Cleves by the way of Hanover, to meet the Prince at his return from the Campaign of Flanders. The King has declared that Monſieur Knyphauſen ſhall reſide in the Court of Denmark, with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary. He has likewiſe appointed the Chamberlain Kampken to go to the Court of Muſcovy in the ſame Character. Monſieur Mareſchal ſet out on Wedneſday laſt for Guben, as Envoy-Extraordinary to King Auguſtus, who was yeſterday to make the Review of thoſe Troops which are to Morrow to begin their March towards Poland. On Wedneſday laſt a Courier diſpatched from the Czar came hither with a Letter written by his Czariſh Majeſty's own Hand to the King of Pruſſia, which confirms the Relations we have lately had of his compleat Victory over the Swedes. The Courier went immediately from hence to the Court of Denmark, to deliver to his Daniſh Majeſty a Letter from the Czar upon the ſame Subject.

Hague, Auguſt 27. N. S. The Count de Maffey ſet out from hence on the 22d Inſtant, by Order of his Maſter the Duke of Savoy, to communicate ſome important Affair to the Duke of Marlborough. The laſt Advices we have received from his Royal Highneſs's Army ſay, that Count Thaun continued at Conflans, in expectation of the Cavalry which was to join him on the 17th. Yeſterday the States of Holland adjourned themſelves to Tueſday next. Signior Cornaro, the late Ambaſſador from the Republick of Venice to the Queen of Great Britain, deſigns to ſet out for the Army within few Days. Signior Foſcarini is ſuddenly expected here from Venice, where he is to aſſiſt in all Negotiations which may regard that Republick. The States-General being adviſed that the Plague encreaſeth very much at Dantzick, inſomuch that fourteen hundred Perſons died in that City in one Week, have thought fit to publiſh an Edict, whereby all Veſſels coming from the Baltick are directed to ſtay at the Texel 'till they ſhall receive further Orders. They are likewiſe prohibited to unload or import any Merchandize from ſuch Veſſels on pain of Death, unleſs with the Permiſſion of the Deputies of the Admiralty, or their Deputies at the Texel. For the more certain prevention of that Diſtemper, they have further ordered, that no ſuch Veſſels ſhall touch at any other Harbour in the United Provinces beſides the Texel, or ſet any of their Men on Shore, on pain of Confiſcation of the Veſſels, and Death to the Tranſgreſſors. Yeſterday in the Evening a Captain of the Guards of his Czariſh Majeſty arrived Expreſs to the Muſcovite Ambaſſador in
